1 KILLED, 5 HURT IN RACE RIOT

Hundreds of Shots Fired in Fight at Laurel, Del.

PREVENTED

Sheriff Speeds Four Prisoners Away In Auto, Fearing Attack on Jail. Negroes Started the Trouble.

Laurel, Del., April 3 .- Pent-up ha tred between the whites and the colored residents of this town burst forth in a race riot, started by the colored faction, in which one white man received a fatal injury, while five others were shot, and another death is feared.

Following a report that the white man had died, the whites, fully armed, marched into the colored section of the town, and a renewal of the outbreak was imminent, but the authorities succeeded in restoring peace.

The citizens are incensed, and in the event of another death it is feared that the colored section will be stormed and burned down. Four colored men, alleged to have been the leaders in the attack on the whites, were arrested, and a mob gathered around the jail, ready to storm it and lynch the men, when the sheriff eluded the crowd, hustled the prisoners into automobiles and speeded to Georgetown, where the men were placed in jail. Another prisoner is a white man, and he is charged with a colored man in the only death.

Reports were received in Laurel from Georgetown that Sheriff Buell and State Detective Walls are ready with a force of armed men to rush to Laurel and take a hand if a new outbreak occurs.

The dead man is Olen Stockley, eighteen years old. He was shot during the beginning of the attack. George Hudson, fifty years of age, a farmer of Bethel, Del., also is in the hospital suffering from gunshot wounds, and it is feared that he will

The others injured are: John Thompson, shot in the legs while he was shaving a patron in his barber shop; George Cannon, struck with several buckshot; James Spicer, shot in the ear, and Edgar Quillen, shot in the side.

Colored Men Start Fight. The riot started when a crowd of colored men, made mad by liquor, swooped down on the main street and by had been fring at the spectators and oth began firing at the spectators and others about the public square. Stockley was one of the first to fall. When the whites saw this they rushed to arms and began battle. Those who did not gage in the fight rushed women and the colored men were armed and the whites were not at the outset.

The whites, once getting their revolvers, rifles and shotguns, returned the fire of the attackers, who were armed with shotguns, and loaded their pieces with buckshot, sweeping the streets. That more were not killed is unaccountable, for the colored gang Records had accosted him and drew his revolver, causing the prisoner to hold up his hands until help arrived.

In this raid John Collins, Arthur Cummins and George Williams, colored, and Albert Hitch, white, were arrested. Hitch and Collins, who are in jail at Georgetown, are charged with the death of Stockley. Each denies the ed in agony, revealing the mistake. crime and blames it on the other. At After two hours of suffering the child a hearing before Justice Clapham it was testified that the quartet were the leaders in the attack, and they were committed to jail.

Then the whites surrounded the jail and threatened to lynch all four, until the sheriff spirited the men into autos and sped away to Georgetown.

Widow of the Traction Millionaire Dies In New York.

New York, April 3.-Mrs. Charles T. Yerkes, widow of the traction mil lionaire, died at her residence, 871 Madison avenue

Mrs. Yerkes had been ill for more than five weeks. Last November she was seized with an attack of grippe, from which she didn't rally. Her sister, who lives in this city, and a secretary were in attendance upon her. The family physician said that heart trouble, following a general nervous breakdown, was the cause of Mrs. Yerkes' illness.

Mrss. Charles T. Yerkes was a Miss Mary Adelaide Moore, the daughter of the junior member of the drug firm of Powers, Weightman & Moore, of Philadelphia. Twenty-four years ago she was married to Mr. Yerkes, who had obtained a divorce from his first wife. # MRS. CHAS. T. YERKES. UNCLE OF MADERO UNDER ARREST

Seized by Mexicans and Cast Into Prison.

INCOMMUNICADO

He Was on His Way to See His Sick Father When He Was Captured by Secret Service Men.

San Antonio, Tex., April 3.—Salvador Madero, brother of Francisco I. Madero, Sr., the head of the local Mexican insurrecto junta, and the one who was recently talking about the peace that he and Senor Limantour were going to conclude in Mexico, was arrested by the Mexican federal authorities the minute he crossed the bridge into Mexico. He is now held in the jail at Nuevo Laredo "incommunicado."

The arrest occurred while the train was standing at the platform. When representatives of the Mexican secret service stepped up to Madero and told him that he was under arrest he denied his identity. But he was taken to the office of the military commander, and there by comparison with a photograph his identity was established. Madero was put in a cell without the privilege of communicating with his friends.

When Madero confessed his identity he said that he was hurrying from San Antonio, where he had been spending a week with his brother, to the bedside of his aged father, who was dying in Monterey. The officers of the Diaz government believed, however, that he was one of the much advertised peace plenipotentiaries of the Maderists who was enroute to Chihuahua to meet Francisco, Jr.

When news of the arrest of Madero caem to San Antonio and was conveyed to the home of the Maderos there was great consternation. Those of the family remaining at home said that Salvador Madero had come to San Antonio four or five days ago to confer with his brother, Francisco, Sr., on a matter of an arrangement more than an adviser, and that he had always been loyal to the Diaz government. He had been sent at the behest of Limantour, they said, and it was charge of embezzling made against true that he was hurrying to Monterey to be at the bedside of his father. The prompt arrest of one of the Ma-deros, who had only a small part to play in the family's plans for the bringing about of a conference between the government and rebel leaders, indicates that the Diaz government is not disposed to look kindly upon the Madero pretensions. The ow must have fallen harde children to safety and then gave their hand in the uneven battle, for Secretary Meyer is Witnessing Francisco Madero, Sr., and his son their hand in the uneven battle, for Secretary Meyer is Witnessing Francisco Madero, Sr., and his son their hand in the uneven battle, for Secretary Meyer is Witnessing Francisco Madero, Sr., and his son Francisco Madero, Sr., and his son

President Taft would like the extra session to pass the Canadian reciprocity measure and then adjourn.

That is just what the Democrats do, not want to do. They see no political purpose in using a Democratic house and a near Democratic senate to get for the president results which in an senate he was not able to secure last

The president was willing to call an extra session in the hope of making the Democrats serve him.

The Democrats propose to turn the tables, and make the president's extra eral other measures in the past. session serve them.

To Hold Pact Back.

They will make it, not a reciprocity session, but a general legislation session. They will have to play their cards with care, lest the Republican president and senate take their advantage from them. It is a part of the politics of the situation, that the Train Kills Couple on Way to Church. Canadian reciprocity measure is to be held back until some tariff legislation has been passed through the house.

The constitution says that he (the president) "may on extraordinary occasions convene both houses or either of them, and in case of disagreement between them with respect to the time crossing. The couple were thrown a of adjournment he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper."

Under that provision the Democrate might be euchered out of their chances. If they should pass the reciprocity measure next week, and if it should pass the senate and be signed by the president the week following, then the Republican senate might pass an adjournment resolution.

If the house disagreed the situation president could step in and prorogue Garrett. congress till next December. This power has never been exercised by a president, but there have been intimation that it will be used this year if the chance arises.

When the Democratic leaders learn ed that the president might take this course they looked up plans to checkmate him. The proposal is to hold back the Canadian reciprocity measure until after some of the big important tariff schedules have passed. After that, if the president chooses to prorogue congress with these popu-

There are a good many farmers who will likely have the beet growing proposition put up to them for the first time this spring. Before signing a contract to grow ten, twenty or thirty acres, as the case may be, better talk the proposition over not only with the special agent of the company soliciting the contracts, but with some fellow who has had a turn at the business or, better, two or three of them if possible, some who have done well at it and e who have not. After canvassing the situation you will be able to decide intelligently whether it will be worth while to take hold of the business.

JOHNSON YEARNS FOR CHICKENS

Prize Fighter Doesn't Like Prison Diet.

San Francisco, April 3.-Jack John son can't get out of jail to get out of the state of California. He'd like to, but the state supreme court and District Attorney Fickert are obdurate.

As soon as the black prize fighter learned that the supreme court had ruled that he must serve his twenty five days' sentence for automobile speeding he obtained a short respite from cleaning stables at the county

He utilized his "time off" in hurrying with a deputy sheriff in his car to the district attorney's office, where he informed Fickert that he would leave California if liberated. The district attorney turned a deaf ear to the pugilist's appeal.

"I don't like the coffee and beans they give me out there," Johnson said to Fickert.

"That will do you a world of good You need to reduce your weight," the district attorney answered.

"But if I could only have a little chicken-just a leg," Johnson appeal ed to the county officer.

Fickert told Johnson that the tax payers would pay only for coffee and beans, with corned beef on Sundays.

To one who has made the rail trip across the Utah deserts it seems impossible that men from the more humid eastern states would have the take dry farming, and yet this is extheir flocks on the mountains in the summer months and in the winter on the deserts, where they subsist on sagebrush and cactus, contend that this movement of settlers to the desert means the ultimate extinction of the grazing business as it has been known

Among the diseases which are known to be caused by microbes are tuberculosis, pneumonia, diphtheria, typhoid fever, lockjaw, blood poisoning, malaria. sleeping sickness, bubonic plague, cholera, dysentery and cerebro-spinal meningitis. Other diseases not yet proved to be caused by germs, but believed by scientific men to be, are scarlet fever, measles, yellow fever, rabies and infantile paralysis. Of all these maladies several have been deprived of their former terror by the serum treatment, chief among them being diphtheria, for which the antitoxin treatment is now given with most gratifying results.

In a general way that type of farming has most to commend it from the standpoint of the welfare of the soil and the owner of it in which the amount paid to railroads for transportation of products is reduced to a minimum. It is because of this fact that raising hogs, sheep and cattle is a better type of farming than grain selling and why butter production is better than either. With grain the value of the shipment is from a cent to a cent In the mining of gold and silver at cents and with butter 25 to 35 cents. value per pound of the product ship-
